What I couldn't imagine was that he would later be a secret agent of God with a big and difficult mission: to bring Bibles to Christians in churches persecuted by the communist regime in the 1950s. Even knowing knowing knowing knowing Á Christian missionary could not go through the "iron curtain". Andrew knew that with God everything was possible. When he crossed the border of some country, with his suitcase and the Beetle full of Bibles, pamphlets and printed matter, he prayed, "Lord, in my luggage there are scriptures that I want to take to your children, who are on the other side of this border. When you were on Earth, you made the eyes of the blind see. Now I ask you to blind the eyes of those who see. Don't let the guards see the things you don't want them to see. And their prayers were heard. You will be greatly blessed with the testimony of God", full of love for the persecuted Church and for the brothers and sisters who live under the repression of communism. A life story full of courage, faith and boldness, which should inspire every Christian to be a faithful witness of the Lord in all circumstances.
